

How to fold: Attacker fish

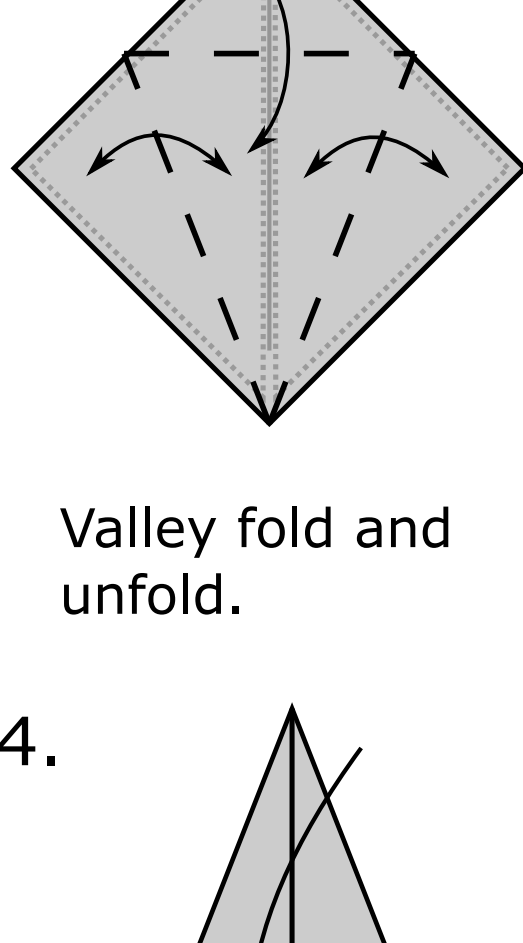

Difficulty: 6.5/10

1.

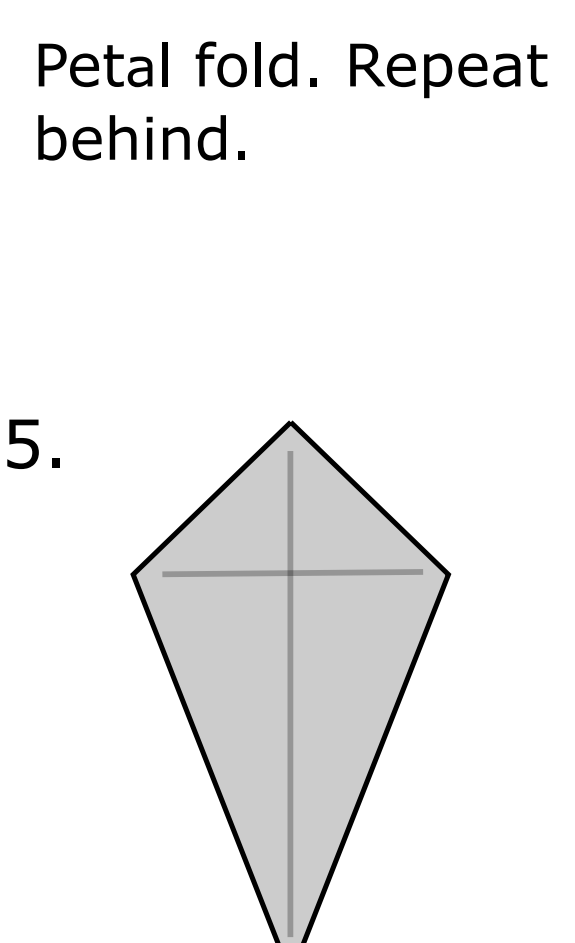

Start with a preliminary base.

2.

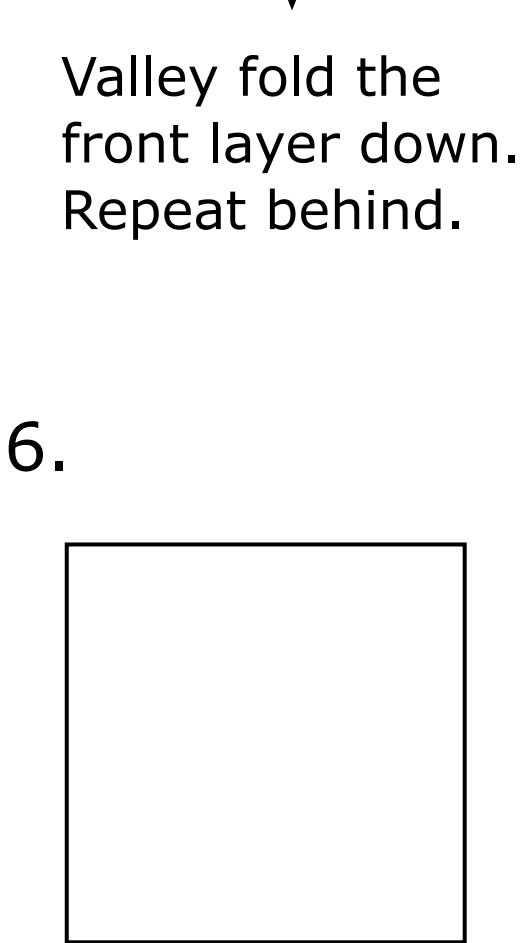

Valley fold and unfold.

3.

Petal fold. Repeat behind.

4.

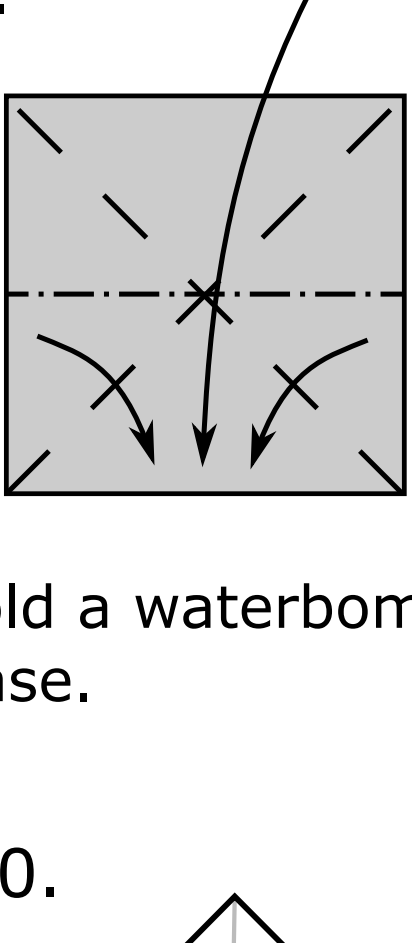

Valley fold the front layer down. Repeat behind.

5.

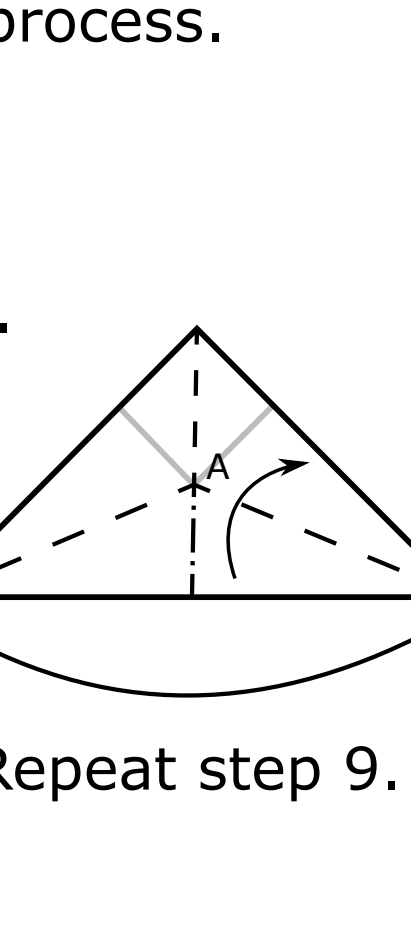

Unfold completely.

6.

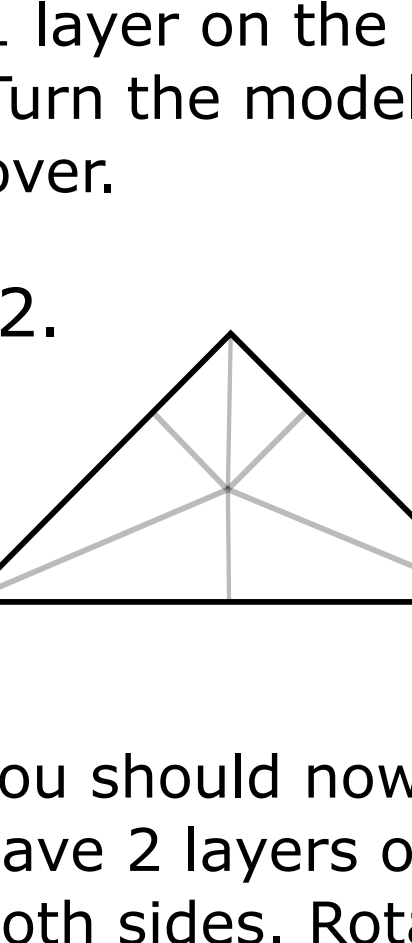

Turn the model over so that the colored side is facing you.

7.

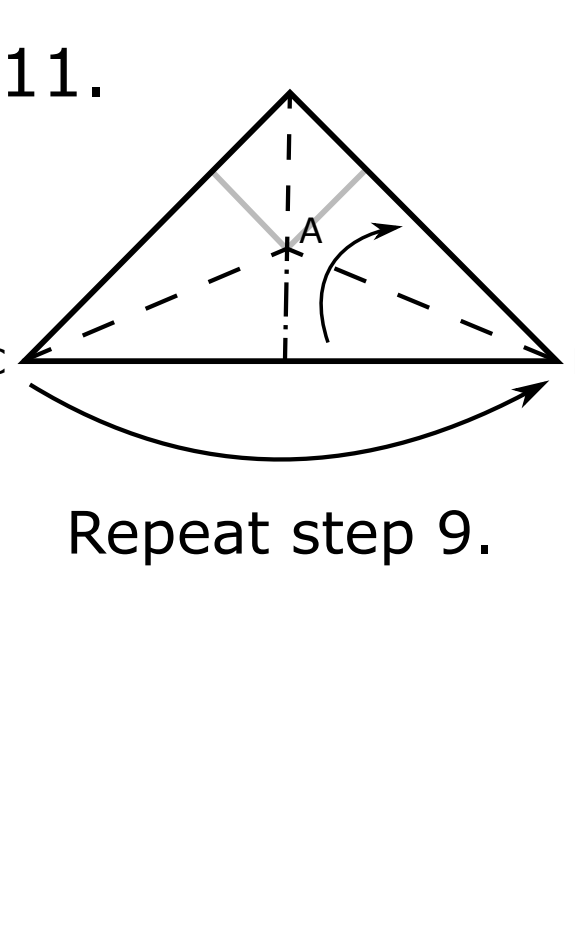

Your creases should look like this.

8.

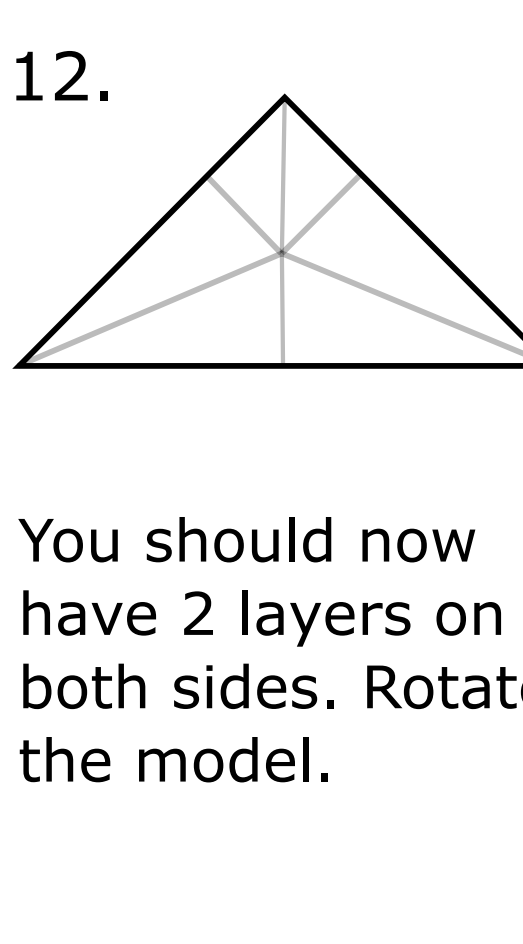

Fold a waterbomb base.

9.

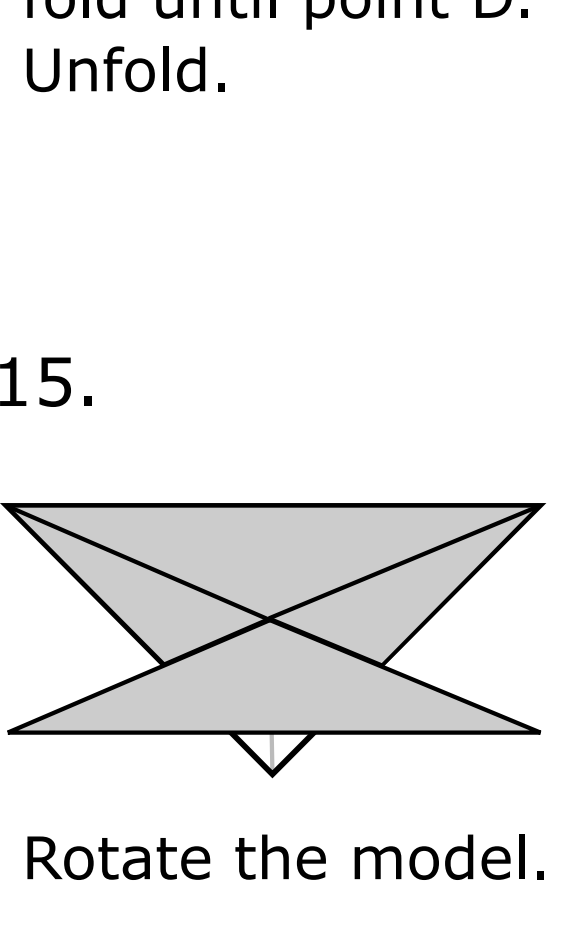

Valley fold on AB, bringing B and C together in the process.

10.

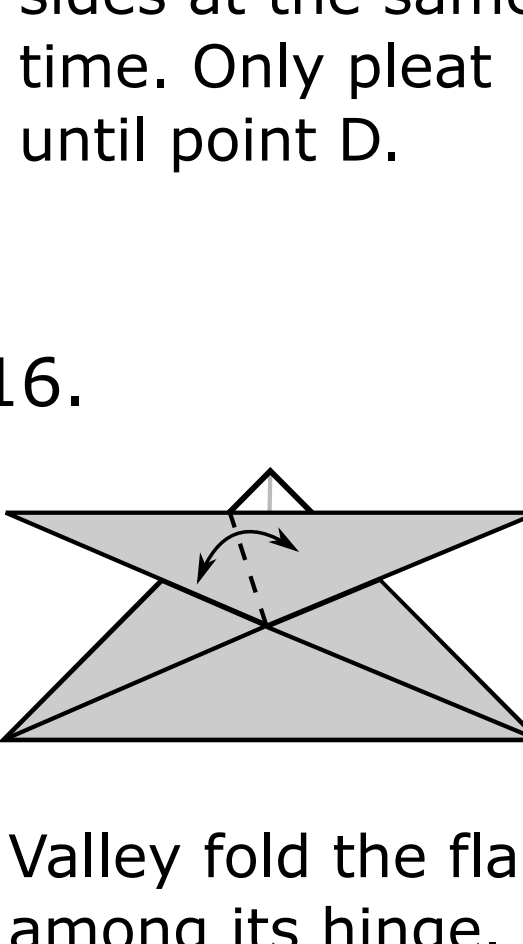

You should now have 3 layers on the right side, and 1 layer on the left. Turn the model over.

11.

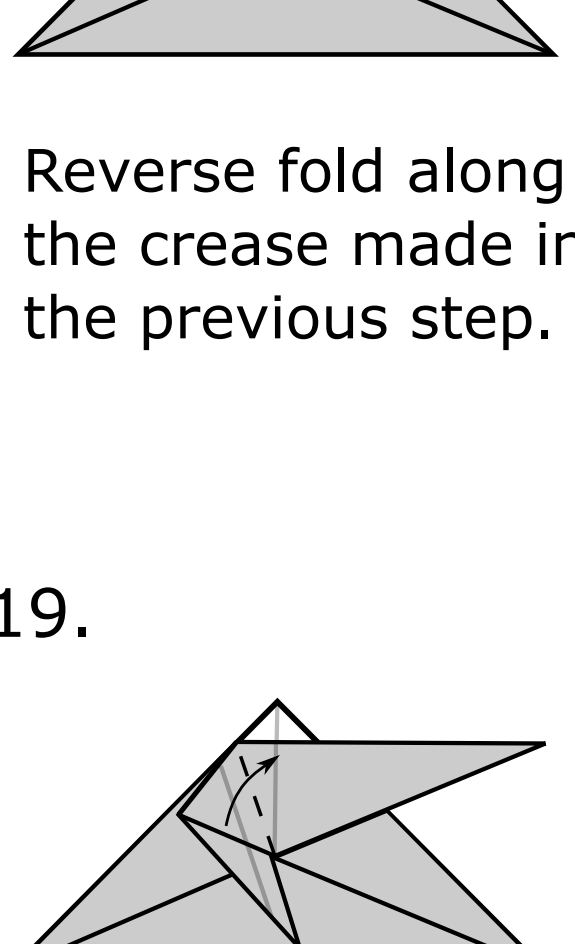

Repeat step 9.

12.

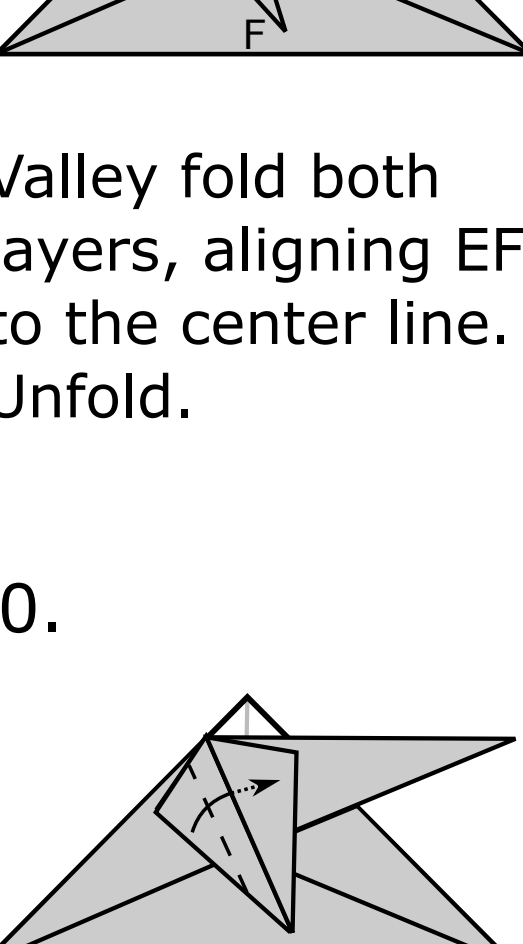

You should now have 2 layers on both sides. Rotate the model.

13.

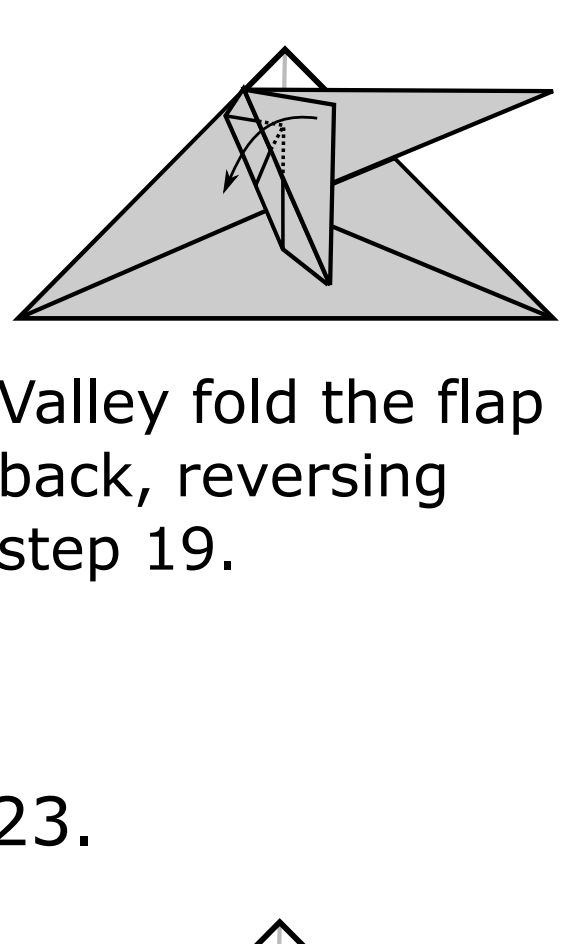

Valley fold. Only fold until point D. Unfold.

14*.

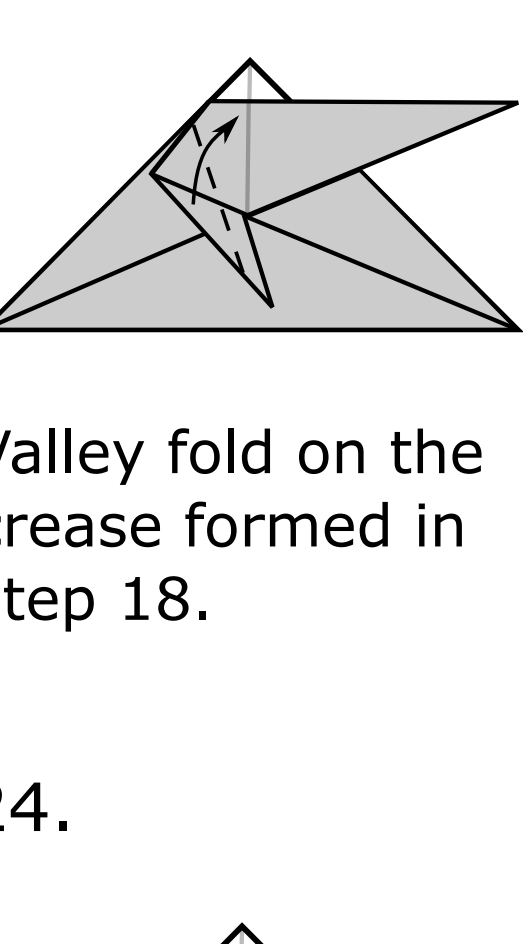

Pleat fold both sides at the same time. Only pleat until point D.

15.

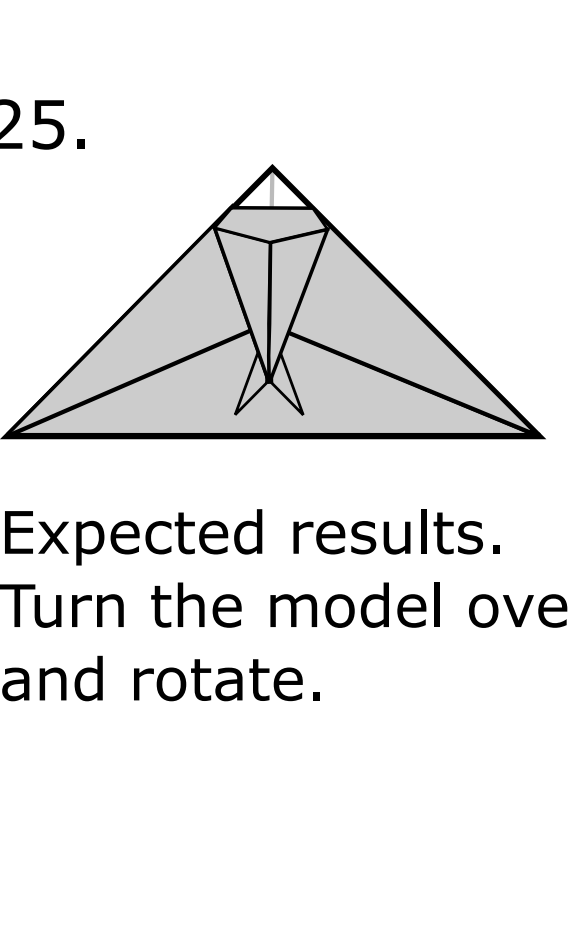

Rotate the model.

16.

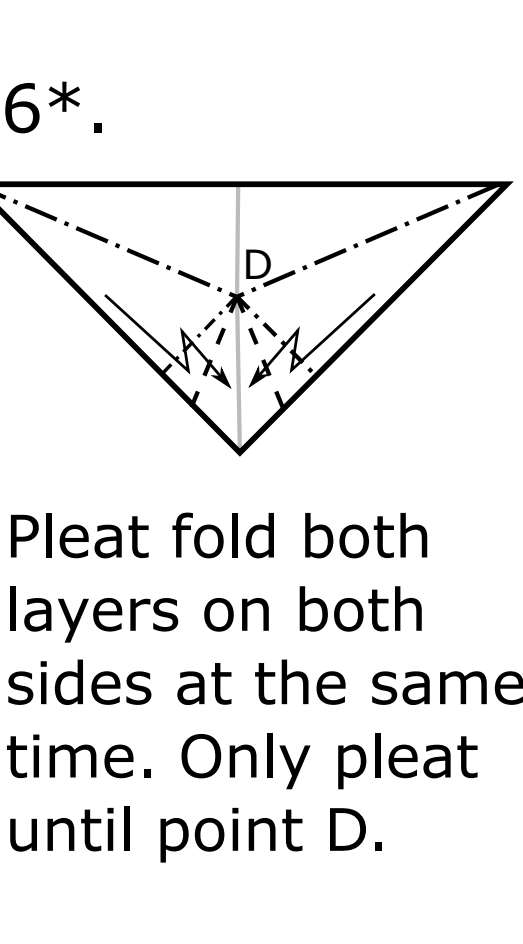

Valley fold the flap along its hinge. Unfold.

17.

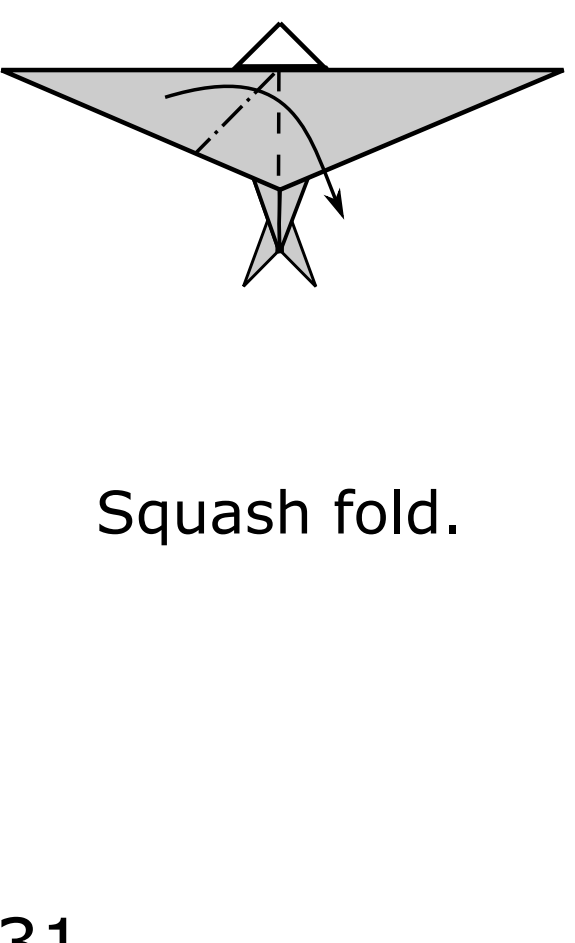

Reverse fold along the crease made in the previous step.

18.

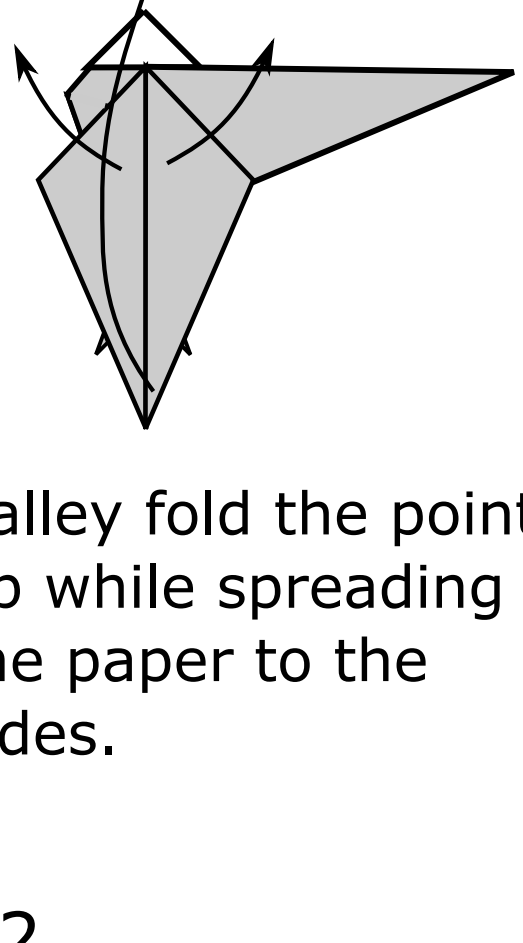

Valley fold both layers, aligning EF to the center line. Unfold.

19.

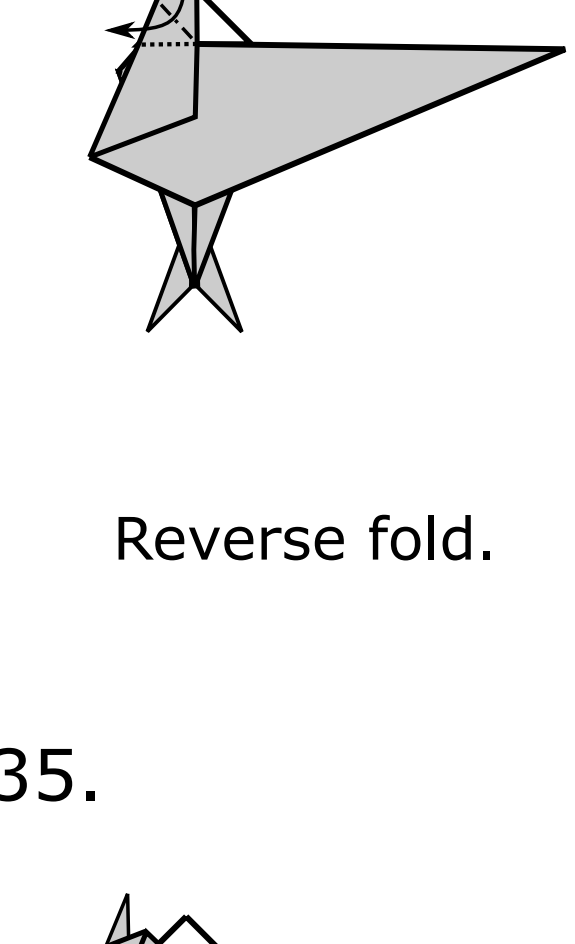

Unfold.

20.

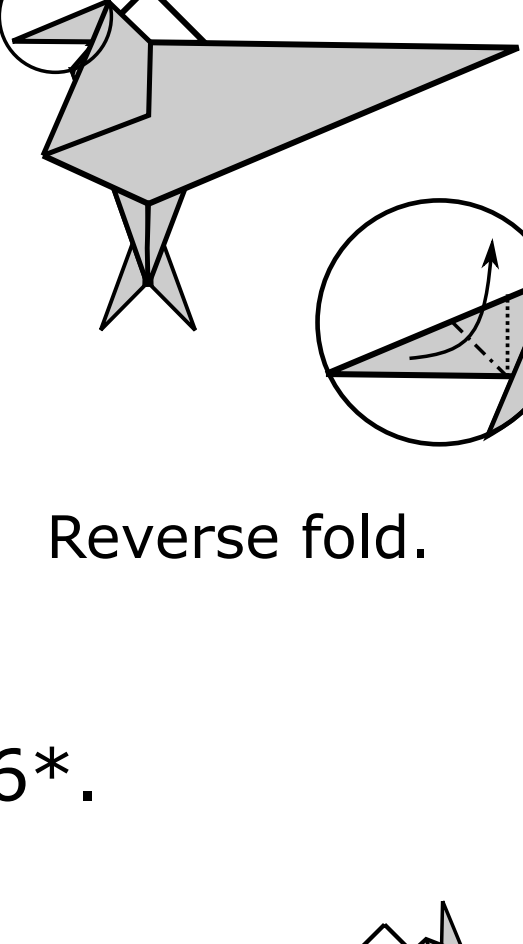

Valley fold the crease formed in step 18 into the pocket.

21.

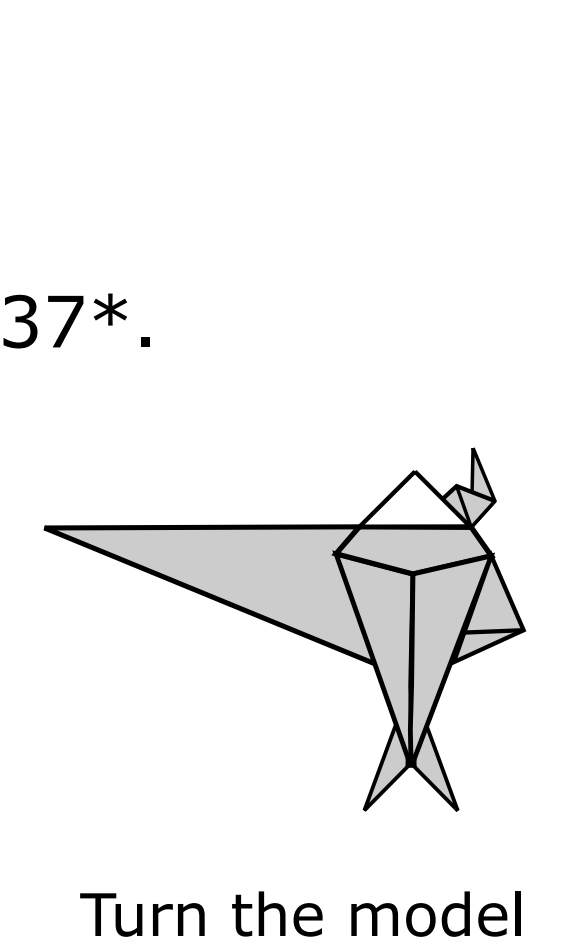

Valley fold the flap back, reversing step 19.

22.

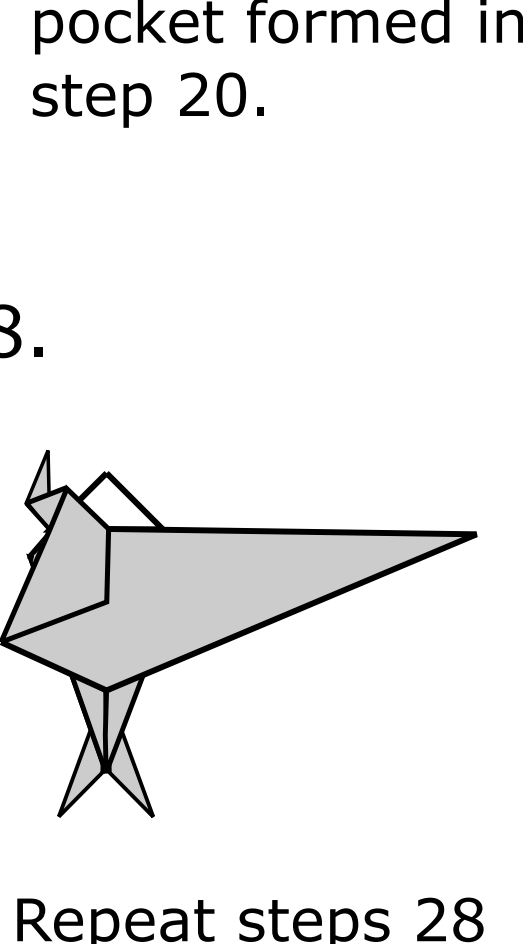

Valley fold on the crease formed in step 18.

23.

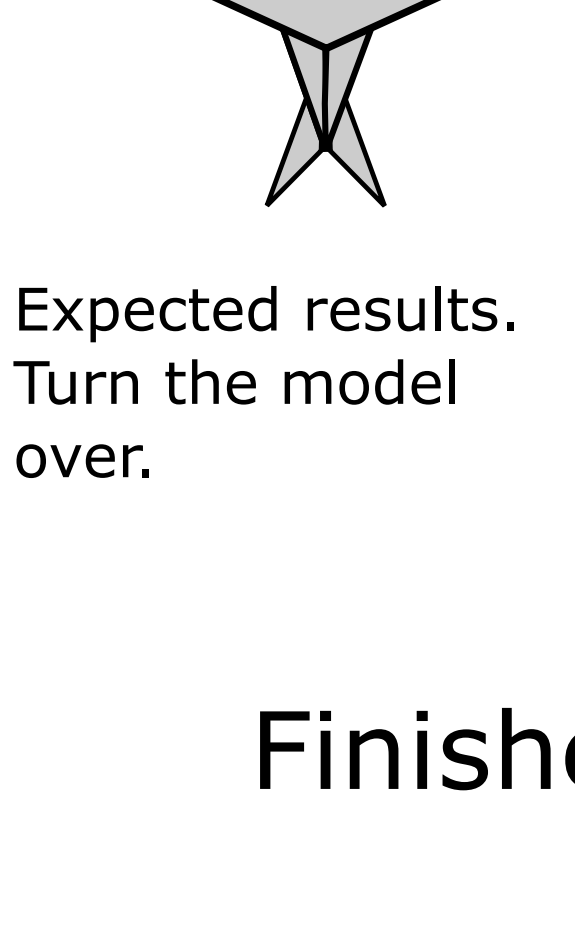

Reverse fold.

24.

Repeat steps 16 to 23 on the right flap.

25.

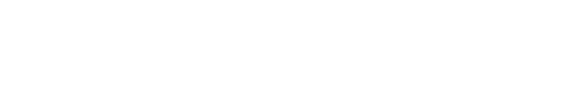

Expected results. Turn the model over and rotate.

26*.

Pleat fold both layers on both sides at the same time. Only pleat until point D.

27.

Rotate the model.

28.

Valley fold and unfold.

29.

Squash fold.

30.

Valley fold the point up while spreading the paper to the sides.

31.

Mountain fold.

32.

Valley fold.

33.

Reverse fold.

34.

Reverse fold.

35.

Turn the model over.

36*.

Valley fold one layer into the pocket formed in step 20.

37*.

Turn the model over.

38.

Repeat steps 28 to 36 on the right flap.

39.

Expected results. Turn the model over.

Finished Result

